Come and hear Gracie Skoglund on Thursday, May 9 at 6:30 pm at Janssens LLC, 26680 Lakeland Ave, Webster.

Gracie is a graduate from the University of Wisconsin in Madison and is a legislative and PAC Director for Wisconsin Right to Life. She is a passionate, young Christian woman who is dedicating her time to advocate for women who find themselves in troubling pregnancies and offer alternatives to abortion. Their mission is to provide support systems such as financial, medical and counseling resources throughout Wisconsin. She has compelling stories and clearly communicates what the political landscape looks like and how it can impact the future of not only the unborn, but of women's health risks as well.

There is a new King Size quilt hanging in the Fellowship Hall. We are using this for a silent auction to raise funds for Mission Quilting. This quilt was donated by Julie Schletty, one of our Community quilters. It is a large king quilt, 94”x 123” and beautifully machine quilted.

We have the starting bid at $300.

The silent auction will run until 5/26/24, Sunday of Memorial weekend.

Take a look and see if this quilt could be cherished in your family.

Thank you,

Mission Quilting, Dawn Straub

Memorial Day (originally known as Decoration Day^[1]) is a federal holiday in the United States for honoring and mourning the U.S. military personnel who died while serving in the United States Armed Forces.^[2] From 1868 to 1970, it was observed on May 30.^[3] Since 1971, it is observed on the last Monday of May.

Many people visit cemeteries and memorials on Memorial Day to honor and mourn those who died while serving in the U.S. military. Many volunteers place American flags on the graves of military personnel in national cemeteries. Memorial Day is also considered the unofficial beginning of summer.^[4]

The first national observance of Memorial Day occurred on May 30, 1868.^[5] Then known as Decoration Day, the holiday was proclaimed by Commander in Chief John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic to honor the Union soldiers who had died in the Civil War.^[6] This national observance was preceded by many local ones between the end of the Civil War and Logan's declaration. Many cities and people have claimed to be the first to observe it. However, the National Cemetery Administration, a division of the Department of Veterans Affairs, credits Mary Ann Williams with originating the "idea of strewing the graves of Civil War soldiers—Union and Confederate" with flowers.^[7]

Official recognition as a holiday spread among the states, beginning with New York in 1873.^[7] By 1890, every Union state had adopted it. The world wars turned it into a day of remembrance for all members of the U.S. military who fought and died in service. In 1971, Congress standardized the holiday as "Memorial Day" and changed its observance to the last Monday in May.

Two other days celebrate those who have served or are serving in the U.S. military: Armed Forces Day (which is earlier in May), an unofficial U.S. holiday for honoring those currently serving in the armed forces, and Veterans Day (on November 11), which honors all those who have served in the United States Armed Forces.^[8]
